Golden Anniversary

St. John's High School

Delphos, Ohio

Volume 12

The Most Rev. George J. Rehring
Bishop of Toledo

Our Pastor

Four years ago, when the Reverend Joseph L. Schill came to Delphos, he learned to know most of the present St. John students as his children.

Today, he addresses us as his young ladies and gentlemen. Father Schill has shown us students the real meaning of devotion and prayer. He directs us in the ideals of responsibility, friendship, dedication, and determination.

All the students here at Delphos St. John's owe Father more than the thanks we give him.

Our Bishop

The Most Reverend George J. Rehring has been our bishop for the last sixteen years. During that time he has administered Confirmation to us as children.

In the past three years he represented our parish in Rome, the site of the Ecumenical Council. He guides us through his letters to our parish.

We owe our gratitude to our Most Reverend Bishop for his many and varied activities, performed as our friendly bishop.

The Reverend Joseph L. Schill
Pastor of St. John's

St. John's High

Mrs. Joseph Menke, secretary of the St. John's Alumni Association, and Mr. Richard Patton, president, lead the meetings and carry out the motions made during the meeting. As secretary, Mrs. Menke, has compiled all the records of the past fifty years. Their work has been essential to the Golden Jubilee plans.

The Alumni Association has scheduled a two-day event to celebrate the Golden Jubilee of St. John's High School. The festivities will begin Saturday, June 25, with a dance in the gym and in the Little Theater from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. A Mass of Thanksgiving will be offered by the alumni Sunday morning.

Invitations have been sent to all priests, religious and lay faculty who have taught at St. John's during the past years, to meet with the alumni at open house on Sunday afternoon. Open house will be followed by the election of the new alumni officers.

Afterwards all in attendance will be invited to a tea in the gym.

Representatives of the classes attend alumni meetings and bring with them suggestions and opinions for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of St. John's High School.

Our 50th Graduating Class

Four years of high school are almost over, now our graduation is approaching. Each year as commencement time drew near, we have experienced a closer bond with the graduating class. As freshmen and sophomores we watched the seniors with awe. During last year's commencement exercises we were reminded that we would be the next and also the fiftieth graduating class.

Now as our senior year draws to a close, we are preparing for our own graduation. Many events crowd the last couple weeks of our senior year. The arrival of caps and gowns is a sort of climax. Carefully and hopefully we open our boxes, and breathlessly we try our gowns for size. Finally, graduation day will arrive, and we'll solemnly file into the auditorium. No longer shall we be seniors. We will be the graduating class of 1966; alumni of Delphos St. John's.

Faculty

Words cannot express the deep admiration and respect our hearts hold for our five priests and twelve sisters. Our appreciation is also given to the twenty-three lay people who have devoted their time and efforts to help us become mature adults.

For all your efforts we wish to say 'Thank You'

Our Devoted Principal

Our principal, FATHER ROBERT YEAGER, even though he is new at his job has succeeded in making the business of the school run efficiently and smoothly. As director of athletics and dramatics, Father has put in long and tedious hours leading to their success. Father's ideas, such as hootenannies, have added extra spark to the school year. Father's new administration has seen new regulations, such as the boy swearing ties which has dressed up the appearance of the students as well as that of the school.

As a priest, Father offers Mass and administers the sacraments. He also acts as counselor and spiritual guide. In many cases he has proved himself as a true friend to the students who have problems or those who just stop at the office to have a short conversation with him.

The third major role that Father plays is that of instructor of the senior sociology classes. We, the seniors, would like to salute Father Yeager for a job well done!

Our Priest Faculty

We, the students owe a special thanks to our priest faculty because they contribute to many parts of our life. They play the role of instructor in the classroom. In the role of spiritual guider, they offer Mass and make the sacraments available to us. Finally, they are friends who are willing to help us with our problems.

Father Thomas Gorman rushes to the office on a cold day during the Christmas season for a quick brush-up on his notes and comments for his next junior religion class.

A broad smile typifies Father William Parker's eager beaver attitude toward being a friend and energetic helper as well as a spiritual advisor to the freshman boys.

Father Lawrence Schaff's sense of humor makes him the most popular teacher in the school. He also serves as spiritual director and offers confession three times a week.

SISTER MARY MARILYN, SISTER MARY ROSETTA and SISTER MARY GREGORY smile approval of the visual-aids and Shakespearean records used in the junior and senior English classes.

Science instructors, SISTER MARY LORENZO and SISTER MARY LADONNA, make use of some of the vast selection of science material and literature found in the library.

SISTER MARY FERDINAND and SISTER MARY LEOTA prepare to supplement their math classes with the use of books, paper models, illustrations and models.

SISTER MARY EVENTIA and SISTER MARY HERMAN discuss some of the new trends of the business world as reflected in the magazines and books—their specialties.

Religious Faculty

SISTER MARY MARILYN: English 3, Journalism, and Adviser of the Crest. SISTER MARY ROSELLA: Mechanical Drawing and English 4. SISTER MARY GREGORY: Home Arts 1, 2, 3, & English 2 and Religion 3.

SISTER MARY FERDINAND: Math 3, Geometry, and Religion 1. SISTER MARY EFOLA: Algebra I, College Preparatory, Physiol General Science.

SISTER MARY LORNZO: Biology, General Science, and Zoology 2. SISTER MARY LAUDONNA: Chemistry and English 2.

SISTER MARY PVENTIA: Typewriting 1, 2, and Shorthand 1. SISTER MARY HERMAN: Bookkeeping, Bookhand 1, Office Practice, Record Keeping in Religion 1.

SISTER MARY ST CATHERINE: Latin 2, 3, 4, and French 1. SISTER MARY BERNARDA: English, Latin 1, and Remedial Reading.

We thank God for the service of these sisters, who have dealt with the problems of the students of St. John's for the past twenty years, the students of St. John's advance in their knowledge of their surroundings and in their dealings with God.

SISTER MARY ST. CATHERINE and SISTER MARY BERNARDA, of the Latin faculty which the department won in last year's Auxilium Latinum Test, are the possibility of adding another trophy this year to the collection.

As a very important part of each day, the Sisters assemble in chapel for prayers. Their professional dedication is a two-fold one, to the educational and the spiritual advancement of their students. Their prayers are petitions that the work they do for the students may add to the honor and glory of God.

MR. ROBERT ARNZEN shows his readiness to help through the friendly smile with which he greets students entering the room. Dean Oscar Beausoleil, his wide experience with boys, Mr. Arnzen is capable of giving shrewd solutions to the problems of youth.

MR. BASIL ALT as a full time counselor wins the confidence of the students as they seek advice. With his professional assistance, students can plan their future rationally and wisely.

MR. EDWARD ZALAR fits his position perfectly as he adds his own touch of humor in his world geography class. He instructs the students on the basic points of the earth's topography.

Seniors

We the seniors have many highlights of our past year to remember. A few of these include: Our last high school retreat... Production of "Carousel"... The spring formal... The senior outing and our graduation. We will cherish all the good times we've had together as well as the privilege of being the fiftieth class to graduate from these halls.

Now as we graduate from high school life to adult life, our circle of influence must be widened to include the whole community. Alumni of St. John's — that's the title we bear after May 29. May we all bear it with honor.

Academics

Since most of our time in school is spent in the classroom, we are indebted to our teachers for the fine education they have given us. Although we may sometimes consider time in the classroom to be unglamorous and perhaps even frustrating, we must remember that the challenges we meet now help to prepare us for the future.

Therefore, we do and learn as much as we can in the present to better our chances for a successful future.

English Classes...

English classes are taught by five sisters and Mr. Daniel Rupert. Senior teachers are Sister Mary Gregory and Sister Mary Rosella; juniors Sister Mary Marilyn, sophomores, Mr. Rupert, and freshmen, Sister Mary Bernarda and Sister Mary Ladonna.

Mr. Daniel Rupert discusses the prospects of everyone's passing the six weeks test with Mark Miller, Jeanne Geise and Laurel Brandhoff of English II.

"Bubble bubble, toil and trouble," say Dennis Setfernuck, Jane Crame, and Patricia Conley as they portray the three witches in Macbeth. Sister Mary Rosella's English IV class read, studied, and portrayed this Shakespearean play during the first semester.

Science—Subject Of Experiments, Projects, Observations

St. John's science department includes physics, chemistry, biology, and general science this year. All four include lab periods.

The teachers are Sister Mary Lorenzo, biology; Sister Mary Leota and Sister Mary Lorenzo, general science; Sister Mary Ladonna, chemistry; and Sister Mary Leota physics.

Studying the difference between leaves is the objective of sophomore biology students, Esther Pohlman, Joseph Myers, Daniel Rode, and Susan Stalikamp.

Dennis Wannemacher proves a graph in Math IV while Michael Pothast, Kathleen Menke, Frank Baldauf, and Linda Liebrecht follow the study at their desk.

Geometry students, George Beckmann, Linda Freiburger, Susan Heidenescher, and Daniel Hiett discover the problems involved with planes and graphs.

Religion...

Priests teach boys religion classes and on Wednesday they instruct the girls classes that are otherwise taught by the Sisters of Notre Dame. The seniors are taught daily by Father Yeager

Attendance at Holy Mass is obligatory only on Wednesday. On other days, students are encouraged to attend a Mass. In this way each student can show that he is responsible enough to do things on his own.

The following teachers instruct religious classes:

Seniors: Rev. Robert J. Yeager
Principal

Juniors Rev. Thomas J. Gorman, and Sister Mary Gregory

Sophomores: Rev. Lawrence A.
Scharf, and Sister Mary Lorenzo

Freshmen Rev. William C. Parker,
Sister Mary Ferdinand and Sister
Mary Herman

Father Parker's hands-on hips position helps to emphasize his point as he waits for an answer in a freshman religion class.

Religion III bulletin board, shown above, May Kay Schulte, Carol Lauer and Kay Koenig have the thought that youth should meet Christ in all their various activities.

Father Scharf checks grades with sophomore boys
Joseph Scherger, Mark Miller and George Beckmann, three members of his religion class.

Languages Are Keys

Vera Hill, Roger Giese, Roselyn Morris, and Jennifer Shauk work. Deborah Klausing has an answer in French I. This is the first time for some years that French has been taught at St. John's. Students who had first year Spanish last year are taking their second credit at Jefferson High this year.

As Daniel Miller operates the tape recorder, Pamela Shenk, and John Grone translate the Latin to English.

Craig McRedmond, Sidney Weber, Craig Reinemeyer, and Dianna Byrne display their first-year Latin projects.

The junior Latin students think that six heads are better than one when it comes to translating a difficult passage. Seated: Katherine Klaus, Cynthia Narket, and John Wulhorst. Standing: Diane Jostpille, Andrew Shenk, and Michael Clark.

LATIN

Joseph Scherger dictates verbs in Latin II, as Kathleen Grottaus conjugates them. The members of the class look and learn by the examples in this exercise.

Business Classes Challenge

Ruth Hayes, Mrs. C. M. K. and Mrs. G. H. Clark
Katherine K. K. and Mrs. F. D. Hall have chosen
Suzie McLean, Nancy Gandy, Orla, Debbie, and Linda
Hayes as the top typists in business classes.

Some of S.J.H.'s office practice students are Sue Gandy, Ann Barnes, Mary Gandy, Texe Hayes, and Luisa Serrano. They will learn how to run and operate the machines.

Ruth Hayes, Norbert Renne, Ned Young,
Julee and Shirley MacLean are the girls working on a business project in the business classes in Period 4 at KCC. Page 55

Typing II

More positions added to Typing II test. Last year, students worked on two levels of the Saxon Math Test. A portion of the class has started on a third level of Typing II.

Home Economics, Skills and Training

Opportunities for developing vocational skills include the home economics courses and the vocational agriculture classes. About 10 boys are transported by bus to Jefferson High each day for a period of vo-ag. These boys also belong to the club, Future Farmers of America (FFA).

St. John's High hopes to equip students enrolling in these vocational courses for a successful future.

Home Arts I students show their skill in canning and labeling their tartar sauce. This is one of the many things they learn in preparing to be future homemakers of tomorrow.

UNDERCLASSMEN

During our years in high school, we mature in body and in mind
We come into contact with many persons, places and events that may help us determine our future. We learn to know the different personalities of our friends

The knowledge and wisdom that we have attained will always be with us as we go our individual ways toward our destiny — The kingdom of heaven

The long awaited moment was reached November 16, 1965, when the members of the junior class received their new St. John's class ring. This ring was adopted one year ago by the present senior class and will continue to be the style for future junior classes.

The ring is a symbol of achievement which brings juniors one step closer to graduation. It symbolizes, too, the student's loyalty to his school.

The rings are gold plated with a blue cut stone as the set. The year of graduation is inscribed on one side; on the opposite side is the St. John's coat of arms.

Activities

Besides the opportunity for academic advancement, St. John's offers us students a challenge to develop a well-rounded personality. It does this through the many activities it sponsors and through these means, it enables us to meet others on a social basis to form our ideals and share them with others.

Retreat Theme: 'Make Someone Happy'

Man wants to be happy. The key to happiness is to deny yourself, pick up your cross, and follow Christ

We high school students were given the opportunity to give of ourselves by the new system of retreat this year. After conferences, group discussions were conducted by the students reviewing highlights. Between the discussion periods and conferences, silence was voluntary

Had we ever thought before

He who chooses to be his own spiritual leader, chooses a fool

Sincerity is the key to confession

Look at myself as God sees me

Are my actions better toward my friends than toward my family?

Maturity demands that I face reality

Are we becoming a race of complainers and self-pitiers?

Would I be willing to suffer for my faith

The other day my sister called and said that the kids from Castello senior are going to see it is one of his stimulating home experiences

Canada's contributions to "make someone happy" are receiving smug results from Sharon Pohlman, Harold Flanagan and Patricia Younger.

'He's got the whole world in his hand,' demonstrates Father Robert Yeager as Daniel Schleeter. Daniel Moenter, John Pohlman and Father Patrick Costello help lead the hootenanny which closed retreat

Marching Band Plays at Football

Mr. Robert Slattery, band and concert master

Precision and school spirit are two of the major functions of the high school band. Spectators can be proud when the band members march to the field with flourish of trumpet beat of drum, and flying colors for the halftime entertainment of the football games.

Many early morning and late evening hours of practice and concentration are spent before performances, especially before the combined band and glee concert presented in December.

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Slattery the band also participates in various parades, fairs and concerts held throughout neighboring states. The band offers Saint John's students the opportunity to employ their musical talent and participate in a worthwhile function.

Halftime

Not too far off the beaten path, the band members stand at the position. This year's show is "Sister Act," featuring Maxine, Irene, Nellie, Lucy, and Marie. King of the band is the newest member, Kay Westrich. Drummers in the front row are Dennis, Brian, and Tom French.

One ability of a majorette must be to smile and keep on smiling no matter what her personal feelings. First row: Heidi, Kim, Karen Hayes. Second row: Kay Westrich, Diana Stankamp, Vicki, Sandra Grubenthal.

Front row, Sir! but the quality of the march they drum up is just O. The others are: Barbara, Sue, Kim, Rosemary, Steven, and a bunch of band members I forgot to name. A Lent Row, Elain Grubenthal.

Latin Club Sparks Interest In Life of Romans

The Junior Classical League moderated by Sister Mary Bernarda consists of members of the Latin classes. Its purpose is to gain a more thorough knowledge of Roman life, customs and language, to understand better the practical and cultural value of Latin; and to interest fellow students in it.

Here the presiding officers of the St. John's unit, known as "Declinatio Romana", design the bulletin board to inform their fellow students of their projects. The officers are Katherine Buettner, Counselor, Catherine Kaverman, Aedile, Michael Wurst, Pontifex Maximus, and Beverly Best, Praetor.

Besides the bulletin board the JCL keeps an active scrapbook of club activities. This scrapbook, compiled by Catherine Kaverman under the supervision of Sister Mary Valeda, won first prize in a state wide contest held last spring.

Girls State representatives, Kathryn Buettner and Constance Plumpe (seated) show souvenirs of their experiences to alternates Loyola Pothast and Shirley Letters.

Daniel Moenter, representing St. John's in Athene during Boys State week as President of Mooney City Council, explains his duties to William Martz, his alternate.

Choral Club Presents Christmas Program

The Choral, under the direction of Mr. Robert Slattery, practices in the early hours of the morning and late hours of the night.

The many practice sessions helped make the Christmas program a grand success.

Musical selections from the program were:

Senior Class Play Is 'Carousel'

Each year the Senior class display their talents in dramatics. This year "Carousel", Rogers and Hammerstein production, was chosen.

The story itself originates in ordinary environment, it proceeds realistically, turns into tragedy and then into an unbelievable fantasy. Billy Bigelow, the barker of the own carousel, falls in love and marries the under, homespun Julie Jordan. Because of the marriage, Billy loses his job, and turns to bullying his wife until learning of his incoming fatherhood (this is the cause for the soliloquy, one of the high spots of the play). Desperately anxious to provide the best for his child, he is persuaded by a shiftless sailor friend, Jigger Craigen, to take part in a hold up. The robbery leads to murder and in the outcome Billy is killed.

Fifteen years pass. Billy is given a chance to return to earth for twenty-four hours and perform one good deed. Billy accepts the chance and on leaving he steals a star to lie upon his meeting his child. Back on earth he finds his daughter sad and lonely. By wishing his appearance to be revealed he offers the star to her but she refuses it. Annoyed by her refusal he slaps her but, strangely enough the sound is present but she is not hurt. Not knowing him to be her father, she tells him of her desire to be free. Now the child is freed of her unhappiness, and Julie realizes that in spite of everything, she made no mistake.

The major singing leads: Craig Griffis (Billy Bigelow), Russell Suever (Jigger Craigen), Sharon Pohlman (Julie Jordan), and Linda Koenig (Mrs. Mullin). The cast also includes Loyola Pothast, Joyce Holdgrave (Nettie Fowler) and Dennis Gerdeman (Mr. Bascombe) with Ralph Schmelzer musical accompanist.

Members of the cast sacrifice many hours practicing to produce a successful musical. Here Loyola Pothast (Mrs. Mullin), Joyce Holdgrave (Nettie Fowler) and Dennis Gerdeman (Mr. Bascombe) run through their part so as to develop themselves into the character to perfect the play.

"Practice makes perfect." Practice not only consists of recitation but the portrayal of the individual characters. Here Thomas Raabe (First Policeman) and John Pohlman (Mr. Snow) give an interpretation of their characters.

Sports

The athletic program this year has been filled with vim, vigor and enthusiasm. As a result, we have been rewarded with a winning season in football and basketball!

We would like to express our appreciation to our athletes as well as our coaches. We are all proud of the accomplishments of our teams.

Coach Rafferty's First Year Brings Winning Season

Dave Lause and Dave Hoehn, our co-captains, lead the Jays with spirit and brawn to our first winning season in four years

The 1965 St. John's Blue Jays football team deserves a lot of praise. This year's team under the direction of Head Coach George Rafferty and assistants Edward Zalar, Daniel Rupert, and Charles Ellis, compiled a 5 and 4 won-and-lost record. It was Coach Rafferty's first year here.

Led by captains David Hoehn and David Lause, the Jays played rough and hard, but clean, and conducted themselves as fitting representatives of St. John's. In closing the record books for this 1965 football season, the entire student body applauds the team that racked up the best year since 1962.

Next year's prospects are bright, with nine lettermen coming back.
